DE CECCO®

dal 1886

PREMIUM QUALITY IN THE PASTA WORLD

- Since 1886 we have been carrying on an important responsibility: our tradition of making pasta, without compromise, that we improve each single day and that allows us to bring the authentic pleasure of Italian cuisine all over the world.
- The simplest things are often the best. Just like pasta: only semolina of the best durum wheat, kneaded with water and then dried with patience and shrewdness.
- There has been no change in the will to pass on, safeguard and consolidate the Founder's original principles of production and quality: selected wheat, fresh semolina from the Molino, bronze plate drawing, low temperature drying and constant quality control.
- Every De Cecco act, today, like back then, comes from deep passion and tenacious search for perfection starting from pasta and going forward.

DE CECCO SPAGHETTI NO. 12 500G | 1KG 188278 | 188294

Spaghetti is so versatile that it can be served with any condiment, from fish to meat, from vegetables to cheese, but is also excellent served just with extra virgin olive oil and a sprinkling of parmesan.

DE CECCO FUSILLI NO. 34 500G | 1KG 188282 | 188296

Fusilli is particularly good with meat and fish based sauces or with condiments made with ricotta. It is also perfect with vegetable sauces too that are prepared with a tomato sauce with peppers, aubergines, olives and capers.

DE CECCO PENNE RIGATE NO. 41 500G 188295

Penne Rigate are perfect for preparing oven-baked pasta or pasta dishes served with meat sauces made from pork or beef. This pasta is equally as good with vegetable based sauces and more in general, due to its versatility, for any recipe from the Mediterranean tradition, such as the classic condiment with tomato, basil, extra virgin olive oil and a sprinkling of parmesan.

DE CECCO RIGATONI NO. 24 500G 188280

Rigatoni is particularly versatile and is perfect with a variety of tomato or vegetable sauces, but the best condiments are sauces made from meat: slow-cooked sauces with meat and mushrooms, made from beef and pork, sausage or giblets. The recipe with pajata (calf intestines) is a classic dish. Any type of sauce that is sufficiently liquid to get inside the pasta and be trapped by the ridges is recommended.

DE CECCO FARFALLE NO. 93 500G 188284

Farfalle is recommended for light sauces: butter-based sauces with peas and ham; delicately flavored white sauce made with salmon and cream; a sauce made from mild, soft cheese with a touch of saffron or curry. This type of pasta is also great for making delicious, colorful and imaginative pasta salads.

DE CECCO CASARECCIA NO. 88 500G 188281

Casarecce are short twists of pasta originating from Sicily which appear rolled up on themselves. Casarecce pairs well with cream/cheese, meat, napolitana, seafood, pesto and vegetables.

Baking Specials all the goodness of homemade pasta. The Baking Specials are inspired by tradition and are recommended for making the most typical recipes of Italian regional cuisine. They all retain the characteristics of handmade pasta: the irregular shape, the rough surface and the elasticity when chewing.

The shape characteristics of the "I Classici" series make them versatile for all types of cooking and use. The choice of high quality semolina and the careful production process used are fundamental. The noodles still retain their dark yellow color and characteristic aroma of ripe wheat. All formats have good porosity, ensuring excellent productivity. Once cooked, the pasta is elastic, chewy, and pairs well with any seasoning. Careful study of each mold ensures uniform cooking of the individual shapes, so the pasta is always delicious, rich and preserved even several hours after cooking.

BEST - TASTING OLIVE OIL BRAND

- 1986, the Filippo Berio brand finally registered. The first official record of sale take place in Filippo's hometown of Lucca, Italy.
- In every deliciously rich bottle of Filippo Berio olive oil lies 150 years of skilled craftsmanship. We treat our heritage with great care, ensuring Filippo Berio's signature today represents the same uncompromising quality that our founder intended.
- In fact, strict quality control standards are applied at every stage of the product process: from the sourcing of olives to the harvesting, pressing, blending and bottling of the final product.
- Filippo Berio's highly experienced tasters sample 6,000 olive oils each year, yet only 6% are actually selected to become Filippo Berio olive oil. Knowing how to blend fruity, sweet, bitter and peppery flavors into a harmonious oil is an art form that relies almost entirely on age-old tradition, experience and skill. For this reason, Filippo Berio's blenders are famous around the world for their invaluable expertise and talent.
